

Trustees Annual Report 2017-2018 – to year ending 5th April 2018

Raising the status of families after homicide and bringing the victim's voice into domestic homicide inquiries to build safer societies.

AAFDA is a centre of excellence for reviews into domestic homicides and for specialist peer support. Working across England and Wales as a national charity, we provide emotional, practical and expert specialist help for families after homicide, particularly domestic homicide. We also help agencies to improve their services for victims and to review homicides more effectively.

AAFDA was formed in April 2008 in memory of Julia and Will Pemberton, whose murders in 2003 prompted a huge inquiry exposing the difficulties families face in these circumstances. AAFDA's work raises the status of families after homicide, helping them to cope and to be able to contribute and influence statutory reviews and inquiries.

ACHIEVEMENTS 2017 – 2018

WORK WITH FAMILIES

Our core work with families is providing them with expert and specialist help after domestic homicide. In the year, 133 families were directly helped, benefiting at least 327 individuals (previous year - 87 families were directly helped benefiting 197 individuals). Our website is also a valuable resource, offering guidance to families and professionals.

AAFDA provided information, peer support, guidance, advice (including access to some free legal advice) and specialist and expert advocacy around Domestic Homicide Reviews, Serious Case Reviews, Inquests, Mental Health Reviews, Independent Office of Police Conduct Investigations and in meetings with agencies such as Health, Police and Local Authorities. One member of the Domestic Homicide Review Quality Assurance Panel recently provided the following comment.

"You really can tell where family have had advocacy, you can see it within the report. You hear the family voice, understand the victim more".

Example outcomes included 168 clients reporting a significant improved experience of the criminal justice system which helps protect against secondary trauma. 52 clients were helped to seek assistance with trauma and mental health issues. 41 family members were helped to perceive greater personal safety after we shared research showing the threat from others diminishing over time. 33 family members felt satisfied that they know the full facts of the case and do not feel the need to seek further facts. Many families reported improved well-being having been proactive in reviews (and achieving their objectives). Many of these families were enabled to make their own representations. In many cases, we brokered a smoother relationship between the families and the officials.

AAFDA has been a member of the Home Office panel that quality assures Domestic Homicide Reviews since these inquiries became law in 2011. The Chief Executive is a Home Office appointed reader individual (provides review assessments to the panel). In 2017-18, AAFDA directly helped 75 families with these reviews. This work gives families a voice and helps them shape the services provided in their community. A frequent impact was to rebalance the report narrative to reflect the percipience of family and friends. This helped ensure that the recommendations were based more on the needs of victims than the needs of service providers.

After a Domestic Homicide Review was completed, we brought the mother of the deceased to meet the Community Safer Partnership (CSP) to advise on the latter's strategy on how they involve families in reviews after domestic homicide and how they perceive the victim. The family member had a big influence on the CSP and she was helped in her grief by being taken so seriously. AAFDA supported the family member to negotiate, prepare for and attend these processes. The learning this conceived has fundamentally changed how this area interacts with families; this should help prevent secondary victimisation by the review process. AAFDA has empowered the family member to herself become a campaigner and begin to advocate for change on her own behalf.

We raised awareness of domestic abuse, influenced prevention work and trained police and other professionals, including local authority personnel and health workers.

INFLUENCE ON POLICY AND PRACTICE AT A NATIONAL LEVEL

- Influenced the Wiltshire Police and Crime Commissioner to undertake a pilot scheme assessing the treatment of victims of domestic abuse by the courts. The findings will be compared to a similar pilot run in Northumbria and learning may be shared nationally.
- At the invitation of the Home Office, AAFDA chaired and presented at a national Domestic Homicide Review learning event for under-performing areas, hosted by the Home Office.
- On behalf of the Home Office, and in collaboration with Standing Together Against Domestic Violence (STADV), we led fourteen regional events, training c.494 individuals on the new Domestic Homicide Review guidance, best practice and on findings from research.
- Regular impacts from our work with families on Domestic Homicide Reviews and other Inquiries were ensuring the victim's and the family's story was told in the report and that reviews included recommendations informed by the input from families and friends.
- Our work on the Domestic Homicide Review Quality Assurance Panel where we quality assured c.100 reviews.
- By being active members of several key panels (including One focussing on scrutiny of individual domestic violence cases) and continuing the work to create a law ensuring statutory provision of victims' services.
- Continued to develop the unique model of families being integral to reviews rather than just involved.

INTERNATIONAL INFLUENCE

In recognition of AAFDA's work helping families after domestic homicide and in changing the Domestic Homicide Review statutory guidance to include children getting specialist help to contribute, AAFDA's CEO was invited to present on our work raising the status of victims at a conference on child protection, held in Italy at the University of Monash in June 2017.

One of AAFDA's advocates presented at the second European conference on domestic violence in Portugal in September 2017. She held a workshop on how raising the status of Domestic Homicide Reviews can prevent domestic abuse.

AAFDA's CEO presented in Dublin in November 2017 on the benefits of Domestic Homicide Reviews.

TRAINING, WORKSHOPS, PRESENTATIONS

Delivered three two-day training sessions on chairing Domestic Homicide Reviews:

"I want to thank you for the insightful and informative training. It was a pleasure to spend time with people who all feel so passionately about keeping the family at the heart of reviews. I am feeling very motivated to become a chair and the training has really prepared me for that."

Delivered several other workshops and presentations to:

- A London wide audience assembled by the Mayor's Office for Policing crime
- Around fifty General Practitioners in South London
- Thirty Social Workers in the South West
- 150 practitioners, victims and other professionals in Northern Ireland
- Several audiences of public protection officials around the country.

"I thought the training was really informative; the trainers were really engaging with clear firsthand experience and it was great to be able to network with colleagues in the same field".

'Thank you for a brilliant day- I thoroughly enjoyed it. I thought it was a very informative day and learnt a lot. I found both facilitators to be very knowledgeable and passionate about the subject. Humour was sensitively brought in which enabled some much-needed light relief.'

"I am just writing to thank you for your time yesterday and for the truly exceptional presentation you gave at the Professionals training event."

Additionally, AAFDA collaborated with other individuals and charities to deliver several 'Making Families Count' workshops to a number of NHS Trusts and we designed and ran a number of bespoke workshops to local areas to improve their statutory review practice.

ANNUAL CONFERENCE

We held our eighth and biggest ever annual conference in March 2018. 225 delegates, including 30 families (65 people) bereaved through domestic homicide, listened to five family members give extraordinary speeches describing horrific crimes and their journey since. We accommodated 26 families in a hotel the night before and held a peer support networking event including a meal.

The world guru on domestic homicide reviews, Professor Neil Websdale, came from the USA to give the keynote address and he joined families at the meal the night before.

IMPACT – As always, delegates commented that there is nothing like listening to families to make clear the seriousness of this crime and that this inspires them to re-double their efforts on domestic violence.

OUTPUT – The conference was filmed and some speeches are on our website.

OUTCOMES – One family member described her initiation as a speaker at this conference as the beginning of her new life. She felt she could now face her difficulties with renewed confidence. Many families built relationships with other bereaved families and reported an improvement in wellbeing.

Other speakers included Professor Gene Feder (a General Practitioner), senior civil servants from the Home Office and Ministry of Justice. In the audience were many families, charity professionals, clergy, academics, solicitors, police officers and probation and social care professionals.

Special Chair of the conference

The conference was chaired by the internationally esteemed singer-songwriterharpist Hattie Webb who recounted her own experience of abuse in a relationship. Hattie was inspirational and she not only brought real flair to this role but also humanity and a tender care for each speaker. We were very grateful for this gift of compassion, skill and emotional connection which reflected the main threads running through the conference.

Feedback was wonderful:

"I think Hattie said that this was her first time doing this? well you can tell her that it didn't show. Consummate professional with such a human touch."

"I must say that Hattie was a wonderful chair. She had that real gentle delivery, which was like an antidote to all the violence that had been experienced by people in the room. It was so lovely to have that kindness and compassion in the Chair. She was in charge but in a compassionate way. And she shared. When she showed her vulnerability, the whole room was with her. I thought it was marvellous. Being a Chair can be one of those stiff roles where you don't get time to be a person. But she was intuitive. She bound the whole room together when she shared her own experience. It was her gentleness that I really liked. It was so warm."

STAFF AND VOLUNTEERS

Demand for AAFDA's services continues to grow therefore AAFDA recruited an Operations Manager in November 2017 to support the team of 6 advocates (now larger) and to develop AAFDA's work.

Nine volunteers helped AAFDA in the year, including by directly helping families, providing legal advice, criminology expertise, research findings, help with the conference and administrative assistance.

FEEDBACK FROM CHAIRS OF STATUTORY REVIEWS

"I needed advice in relation to a DHR where I and the family wanted to name the victims and family and also about keeping the family involved in the publication. I went to AAFDA whose incredible knowledge was extremely helpful, both to me and the Community Safer Partnership"

"Most importantly, a review needs to enable an un-fettered voice for bereaved families and, as chair, there have been times when this would not have been possible without AAFDA's help for both myself and the families concerned."

"I have followed the work of AAFDA throughout the years but feel the last year or so has really compelled more people to pay attention to what they do. Frank leads the ethos of AAFDA expertly, with compassion and an open mind. His ability to work in partnership is inspiring and we could all learn how to negotiate a better deal for Victims and survivors from him. I look forward to seeing what AAFDA brings in 2019."

"My view is clear. AAFDA provide an invaluable resource that helps not only the individual families who have fallen victim to these horrific events but also support the DHR process by appropriate challenge to Chairs and partnerships. As a Chair I always feel the DHRs that have active AAFDA involvement are always better than those which do not."

"In 2018 AAFDA continued to support families who had lost loved ones through fatal domestic abuse. AAFDA advocates provided a very valuable conduit between bereaved families and the DHR process, ensuring that the voice of victims was not lost in what probably appears to families, as a remote and unfamiliar process."

"The work done by AAFDA advocates in negotiating the content of DHR reports is always appreciated by DHR panel chairs and members. On several occasions' families have been able to raise points, through AAFDA, that may otherwise have been lost to the DHR."

'In my view, engaging families in the DHR process is the single most important achievement when starting a DHR. Sometimes that can be very difficult when families are still traumatised and confused by the loss of a loved one and their journey through the criminal justice processes. Almost without exception, involving AAFDA at an early stage is the key to engaging families. AAFDA's advocates approach the DHR process with compassion, care and understanding that comes from their own painful experiences. AAFDA's approach very often makes a huge difference to ensuring families can make their voices heard and hence AAFDA are really appreciated by those, like me, who chair, write and contribute to the DHR process."

"As a former commissioner and now independent chair, I have found that AAFDA's support for families has been invaluable to an effective review and I will always encourage their involvement. Perhaps selfishly, having AAFDA involved helps me do my core business. As well as guide my respectful communications with the family: you make sure that families stay central to the review; help keep me on time and focus and provide a specialist take on the report and its findings. You are a much needed critical friend."

FINANCE

Income was £229K and costs were £232K. AAFDA's primary funders were: the Ministry of Justice (£34K), Esmée Fairbairn (£45k), Victim Support (£71K) and Henry Smith (£45K). A further £33K was generated through consultancy work, allowing AAFDA to create unrestricted reserves to strengthen AAFDA's financial position.

AAFDA undertakes regular strategic review to inform our fundraising strategy. AAFDA's costs will increase in 2018-19 as the number of families we are helping has grown significantly. We have appointed an Operations Manager, two more advocates and will appoint a business development manager for a fixed contract.

Reserves Policy

AAFDA is growing significantly amidst a very uncertain funding environment. Consequently, the Trustees have considered future income and expenditure and the risks facing AAFDA and aimed for reserves to be between three and six months of the following year's forecast expenditure after designated funds. Expenditure in 2018-19 is expected to increase very significantly but we are on target to sustain reserves at the lower end of this target which ensures financial resilience and complies with the Charity Commission's guidance.

Public Benefit Statement

The trustees have complied with their duty to have due regards to the guidance on public benefit published by the Charity Commission in exercising their powers or duties. This includes, for example, being clear that the activities AAFDA undertakes are for the public benefit.

Financial Review

AAFDA has prepared accounts on the accruals basis. They show a true and fair view.

CONSTITUTION AND ORGANISATIONAL STRUCTURE

AAFDA was an unincorporated association formed on 1 April 2008 (will become incorporated in 2019). It adopted an amended constitution on 23 July 2008 and became a registered charity on 19 September 2008.

Governance and how AAFDA makes Decisions

Our Board comprised of five trustees and included a local authority strategic Violence Against Women and Girls lead and expert in Criminal Justice Sector, a Safeguarding lead for a Clinical Commissioning Group and Senior Health advisor and a specialist charity lawyer.

The AAFDA Board met at least on a quarterly basis when the CEO reported on the main aspects of the charity (work with beneficiaries, impact on victims, emerging issues, finance, strategic plan and operational performance and risk). The Board is aware of its responsibilities to identify and manage risk.

A risk management register is reviewed regularly by the CEO who raises any increases in risks and new risks with the Board. The trustees and CEO are in regular and frequent contact by phone and e-mail.

The Board complied with statutory obligations to submit Full Year Accounts, a Trustees' Annual Report and an Annual Return to the Charity Commission.

Trustee Induction and Training

AAFDA's trustees are highly skilled professionals with great knowledge and experience in areas including domestic abuse, influencing public bodies and charity law. All new trustees are supplied with a copy of 'The Essential Trustee' provided by the Charity Commission and invited to discuss any queries with the Chair. The trustees receive no remuneration or other benefits.

Report to the Trustees of Advocacy After Fatal Domestic Abuse On the Accounts for the Year Ended 5th April 2018 Charity No 1125973

Respective Responsibilities of Trustees and Examiner

The charity's trustees are responsible for the preparation of the accounts. The charity's trustees consider than an audit is not required for this year under section 144 of the Charities Act 2011 (The Charities Act) and that an independent examination is needed.

As independent examiner, it is my responsibility to:

- examine the accounts under section 145 of the Charities Act,
- to follow the procedures laid down in the general directions given by the Charity Commission (under section 145(5)(b) of the Charities Act), and
- to state whether particular matters have come to my attention.

Basis of Independent Examiner's Statement

My examination was carried out in accordance with general Directions given by the Charity Commission. An examination includes a review of the accounting records kept by the charity and a comparison of the accounts presented with those records. It also includes consideration of any unusual items or disclosures in the accounts, and seeking explanations from the trustees concerning any such matters. The procedures undertaken do not provide all the evidence that would be required in an audit, and consequently no opinion is given as to whether the accounts present a "true and fair" view and the report is limited to those matters set out in the statement below.

Independent Examiner's Statement

In connection with my examination, no matter has come to my attention:

- which gives me reasonable cause to believe that, in any material respect, the requirements: - to keep accounting records in accordance with section 130 of the Charities Act;
  - to prepare accounts which accord with the accounting records and comply with the accounting requirements of the Charities Act have not been met, or
- (2) to which, in my opinion, attention should be drawn in order to enable a proper understanding of the accounts to be reached.

Accounting policies

This standard list of accounting policies has been applied by the charity except for those deleted. Where a different or additional policy has been adopted then this is detailed in the box below.

INCOMING RESOURCES

	the monetary value can be measured with sufficient reliability.
Incoming resources with related expenditure	Where incoming resources have related expenditure (as with fundraising or contract income) it
Grants and donations	and reported gloss in the SOFA.
Tax reclaims on donations and gifts	Grants and donations are only included in the SoFA when the charity has unconditional entitlement to the resources.
	incoming resources from tax reclaims are included in the SoFA at the same time as the gift to which they relate
Contractual income and performand related grants Gifts in kind	<sup>ce</sup> This is only included in the SoFA once the related goods or services have been delivered.
	Gifts in kind are accounted for at a reasonable estimate of their value to the charity or the amount actually realised.
	Gifts in kind for sale or distribution are included in the accounts as gifts only when sold or distributed by the charity.
Departed and the second	Gifts in kind for use by the charity are included in the SoFA as incoming resources when receivable
Donated services and facilities	These are only included in incoming resources (with an equivalent amount in resources expended) where the benefit to the charity is reasonably quantifiable, measurable and material. The value placed on these resources is the estimated value to the charity of the service or facility received.
Volunteer help	The value of any voluntary help received is not included in the accounts but is described in the trustees' annual report.
Investment income	This is included in the accounts when receivable.
Investment gains and losses	This includes any gain or loss on the sale of investments and any gain or loss resulting from revaluing investments to market value at the end of the year.

Grants payable without performance conditions	These are only recognised in the accounts when a commitment has been made and there are no conditions to be met relating to the grant which remain in the control of the charity.
Support Costs	Support costs include central functions and have been allocated to activity cost categories on a basis consistent with the use of resources, eg allocating property costs by floor areas, or per capita, staff costs by the time spent and other costs by their usage.

Report to the Trustees of Advocacy After Fatal Domestic Abuse On the Accounts for the Year Ended 5th April 2018 Charity No 1125973

Respective Responsibilities of Trustees and Examiner

The charity's trustees are responsible for the preparation of the accounts. The charity's trustees consider than an audit is not required for this year under section 144 of the Charities Act 2011 (The Charities Act) and that an independent examination is needed.

As independent examiner, it is my responsibility to:

- examine the accounts under section 145 of the Charities Act,
- to follow the procedures laid down in the general directions given by the Charity Commission (under section 145(5)(b) of the Charities Act), and
- to state whether particular matters have come to my attention.

Basis of Independent Examiner's Statement

My examination was carried out in accordance with general Directions given by the Charity Commission. An examination includes a review of the accounting records kept by the charity and a comparison of the accounts presented with those records. It also includes consideration of any unusual items or disclosures in the accounts, and seeking explanations from the trustees concerning any such matters. The procedures undertaken do not provide all the evidence that would be required in an audit, and consequently no opinion is given as to whether the accounts present a "true and fair" view and the report is limited to those matters set out in the statement below.

Independent Examiner's Statement

In connection with my examination, no matter has come to my attention:

- which gives me reasonable cause to believe that, in any material respect, the requirements: - to keep accounting records in accordance with section 130 of the Charities Act;
  - to prepare accounts which accord with the accounting records and comply with the accounting requirements of the Charities Act have not been met, or
- (2) to which, in my opinion, attention should be drawn in order to enable a proper understanding of the accounts to be reached.
